

To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Bethany Sanderson for the past 6 years first as a student and then as a friend. In the time that I have known her, I have seen her grow in many different areas of her life. Bethany has always been a natural leader. In high school she served as her class's president, student body president, planning and executing a variety of events. As a lead basketball player, she was an encourager and role model for younger students on the team. Her ability to lead has carried into her career at Spring Arbor University as a leader in the dorms and as an assistant on the basketball team.

Bethany is always willing to do what is asked of her, often going above and beyond the request made. She has always been reliable, punctual, and efficient in the work completed. She dedicates herself to whatever the task may be at hand. This was true in high school and has carried into her college career in her school work and other accomplishments.

Bethany cares about others and demonstrates strength of mind, body, and spirit. She is positive and always seeks to do the right thing. Her spiritual depth has grown as well, as she always strives to do what God would have her do.

Bethany would be an asset to any community. She will put her heart and soul into her work, she will be ready to lead when asked, and she will be ready to follow when needed. I would consider Bethany qualified for whatever task God gives her to do.

Sincerely,
